Dear _____,

My name is _____, and I am interested in starting a Frontier Girls troop in our community. I am looking for a local church that would like to offer the troop as part of its youth programming.

Frontier Girls is a scouting-style program for girls ages 3 and up that focuses on character, community service, life skills, leadership, patriotism, and a love of learning. With more than 1,200 badges to choose from, girls can explore everything from camping, cooking, and first aid to art, science, history, animals, gardening, and dozens of other interests.

I believe a Frontier Girls troop could be a great addition to your church's existing youth programs. It gives girls a place to build friendships, learn practical skills, serve their community, and grow in confidence and leadership while participating in a program operated by your church. Because each troop is independently operated, your church can incorporate its own Christian teachings, traditions, and priorities into troop activities.

Frontier Girls also places a strong emphasis on service and good character. Girls are encouraged to look for ways to help others, serve their community, and put the Frontier Girls motto, "If you see a need, take the lead," into practice. The program includes badges and awards that encourage kindness, responsibility, faithfulness, self-control, leadership, and service to others.

Unlike many scouting programs, there is no national Frontier Girls organization for your church to join. Curiosity Untamed LLC provides the curriculum and licenses the Frontier Girls name and branding, while each troop is operated locally. This gives your church the flexibility to run the troop in a way that works with your own youth programming, policies, and goals.

On the following page, I have included more information about what a Frontier Girls troop could offer your church and what they ask of the church in return.

You can learn more about Frontier Girls at frontiergirls.com. If you have questions about the program, you can also contact Curiosity Untamed directly at info@frontiergirls.com or call them at (530) 524-8799. I would love the opportunity to meet with you, answer any questions, and talk about whether a Frontier Girls troop might be a good fit for your church.

Bring Frontier Girls TO YOUR CHURCH

Give girls in your community a place to learn, serve, lead, and grow.

What Frontier Girls Offers Your Church

1. A flexible, ready-made program.
With more than 1,200 badges and a variety of higher awards, girls can explore everything from camping, cooking, and first aid to art, science, history, leadership, and more. Your church chooses the activities that best fit its girls and families.

2. A focus on character and service.
Frontier Girls encourages good character, leadership, and service to others. Our motto, "If you see a need, take the lead," challenges girls to notice needs around them and do something to help.

3. Another way to serve families.
A troop can bring girls and their families into your church for meetings, service projects, ceremonies, and special events while complementing the youth programs you already offer.

4. A program your church can make its own.
Your church can incorporate its own Christian teachings, traditions, and priorities and decide how Frontier Girls fits into its overall youth programming.

5. Opportunities for girls to grow.
Girls learn practical life skills, try new things, serve others, take on leadership roles, and build confidence while having fun with friends.

What We Are Looking For

1. Make Frontier Girls part of your youth programming.
We are looking for a church willing to include a Frontier Girls troop in its youth programming and take responsibility for how the troop is operated.

2. Select and oversee leaders and volunteers.
The church selects its Troop Leader and other volunteers and determines what screening, background checks, training, supervision, and other requirements are appropriate for those working with minors.

3. Provide or approve a place to meet.
The church provides or approves a safe and suitable place to meet.

4. Establish local policies and safety practices.
The church determines the policies and procedures that apply to its troop, including supervision, safety practices, permission forms, activities, trips, and any other requirements it considers appropriate.

5. Oversee finances and insurance.
The church determines how troop funds and fundraising are handled and what insurance coverage is appropriate. Curiosity Untamed LLC does not provide insurance or financial oversight.
