Dear _____,

My name is _____, and I am interested in starting a Frontier Girls troop in our community. I am looking for a local community organization that would like to offer the troop as part of its youth programming.

Frontier Girls is a scouting-style program for girls ages 3 and up that focuses on community service, character, leadership, life skills, and a love of learning. With more than 1,200 badges to choose from, girls can explore everything from camping, cooking, and first aid to science, art, history, gardening, financial literacy, and hundreds of other interests.

I believe a Frontier Girls troop could be a great fit for your organization. Community service is a major part of Frontier Girls, giving girls opportunities to work alongside your members on projects that benefit the people and organizations you already serve.

A troop also gives your members a chance to share their own skills and experience with the next generation. Whether your members have experience in business, trades, public service, the arts, gardening, cooking, leadership, or other areas, there are countless opportunities for them to help girls learn new skills and explore new interests.

Frontier Girls' motto is "If you see a need, take the lead." The program encourages girls to notice needs around them, step up to help, and develop the confidence and leadership skills to make a difference in their communities.

Unlike many scouting programs, there is no national Frontier Girls organization for your organization to join. Curiosity Untamed LLC provides the curriculum and licenses the Frontier Girls name and branding, while each troop is operated locally. This gives your organization the flexibility to run the troop in a way that works with your own programs, policies, and goals.

On the following page, you will find more information about what a Frontier Girls troop can offer your organization and what a troop needs from an organization willing to operate one.

To learn more about Frontier Girls, visit frontiergirls.com. Questions about the program can be directed to info@frontiergirls.com or you are welcome to call Curiosity Untamed at 530-524-8799.

I would love the opportunity to meet with you, answer any questions, and discuss whether a Frontier Girls troop might be a good fit for your organization.

Sincerely,

Bring Frontier Girls TO YOUR ORGANIZATION

Give girls in your community a place to learn, serve, lead, and grow.

What Frontier Girls Offers Your Organization

1. Young volunteers ready to serve.
Community service is central to Frontier Girls. Girls can work alongside your members on projects and events that benefit your community.

2. A chance to mentor the next generation.
Members can share their knowledge, careers, hobbies, and life skills while helping girls learn, explore new interests, and develop confidence.

3. A youth presence in your community.
A troop gives your organization a visible youth component that can participate in service projects, community events, ceremonies, and other activities.

4. A focus on leadership and initiative.
Our motto, "If you see a need, take the lead," encourages girls to recognize needs, take responsibility, solve problems, and become leaders.

5. A flexible, ready-made program.
With more than 1,200 badges and higher awards, your organization gets an established program that can draw on the interests of the girls and the talents of your members.

What We Are Looking For

1. Make the troop part of your youth programming.
The organization takes responsibility for how its Frontier Girls troop is operated.

2. Select and oversee leaders and volunteers.
The organization selects its Troop Leader and volunteers and determines appropriate screening, background checks, training, and supervision.

3. Provide or approve a place to meet.
The organization provides or approves a safe and suitable place for troop meetings.

4. Establish local policies and safety practices.
The organization determines its requirements for supervision, safety, activities, trips, permission forms, and other troop operations.

5. Oversee finances and insurance.
The organization determines how troop funds and fundraising are handled and what insurance coverage is appropriate. Curiosity Untamed does not provide insurance or financial oversight.
