Dear _____,

My name is _____, and I am interested in starting a Frontier Girls troop in our community. I am looking for a local veterans Post that would like to offer the troop as part of its youth programming.

Frontier Girls is a scouting-style program for girls ages 3 and up that focuses on patriotism, community service, character, leadership, life skills, and a love of learning. With more than 1,200 badges to choose from, girls can explore everything from camping, cooking, and first aid to American history, citizenship, science, art, gardening, and hundreds of other interests.

I believe a Frontier Girls troop could be a great fit for your Post. Patriotism has been part of Frontier Girls since the program began. Girls learn respect for our country and its flag, explore American history and citizenship, participate in community service, and are encouraged to become responsible citizens and leaders.

A troop can also give veterans an opportunity to share their knowledge and experience with the next generation. Your members may be able to help girls learn about flag etiquette, citizenship, leadership, service, emergency preparedness, American history, and other topics where their experience can bring learning to life.

Frontier Girls' motto is "If you see a need, take the lead." Girls are encouraged not just to learn about service and leadership, but to put them into practice by helping their families, their communities, and others in need.

Unlike many scouting programs, there is no national Frontier Girls organization for your Post to join. Curiosity Untamed LLC provides the curriculum and licenses the Frontier Girls name and branding, while each troop is operated locally. This gives your Post the flexibility to run the troop in a way that works with its own programs, policies, and goals.

On the following page, you will find more information about what a Frontier Girls troop can offer your Post and what they ask of an organization willing to operate one. To learn more about Frontier Girls, visit frontiergirls.com. Questions about the program can be directed to info@frontiergirls.com or you are welcome to call them at 530-524-8799.

I would love the opportunity to meet with you, answer any questions, and discuss whether a Frontier Girls troop might be a good fit for your Post.

Sincerely,

Bring Frontier Girls TO YOUR POST

Give girls in your community a place to learn, serve, lead, and grow.

What Frontier Girls Offers Your Post

1. A strong tradition of patriotism and military support.
Patriotism is central to Frontier Girls. Girls learn to respect our country, honor those who served, support our military, and become responsible citizens. Girls from military families receive special recognition for their family's service.

2. A chance for veterans to share their experience.
Post members can share their knowledge of flag etiquette, American history, citizenship, leadership, service, and other skills with the next generation.

3. A youth presence in your community.
Girls can serve alongside Post members at meals, memorials, wreath placements, flag ceremonies, and other community events.

4. A focus on service and leadership.
Our motto, "If you see a need, take the lead," encourages girls to serve others, take responsibility, and develop leadership skills.

5. A flexible, ready-made program.
With more than 1,200 badges and higher awards, there are plenty of opportunities to match the interests of your girls and the skills of your members.

What We Are Looking For

1. Make the troop part of your youth programming.
We are looking for a Post willing to include a Frontier Girls troop in its youth programming and take responsibility for how the troop is operated.

2. Select and oversee leaders and volunteers.
The Post selects its Troop Leader and other volunteers and determines what screening, background checks, training, supervision, and other requirements are appropriate for those working with minors.

3. Provide or approve a place to meet.
The Post provides or approves a safe and suitable place to meet.

4. Establish local policies and safety practices.
The Post determines the policies and procedures that apply to its troop, including supervision, safety practices, permission forms, activities, trips, and any other requirements it considers appropriate.

5. Oversee finances and insurance.
The Post determines how troop funds and fundraising are handled and what insurance coverage is appropriate. Curiosity Untamed does not provide insurance or financial oversight.
